Class Teacher : Ms. Geetha .M

Class Strength : 42

Date : 10.02.2023 (Friday)

Timings : 8:45 a.m. – 9:15 a.m.

The Class Assembly of I-E was held on 10th February 2023, on the theme “Dance Forms of India - West Bengal”.

Compering of the whole programme was done by Krithin Sai Tiruveedhula and Viviya Jerilyn. The programme commenced with DAV Gaan followed by the Gayatri Mantra. Our National pledge was led by Harshavarthinie. The assembly topic, “Dance Forms of West Bengal” was introduced by Aparna. R. followed by a popular Bengali song sung by our Nightingales.

Ramp Walk- The placards used during the Ramp walk featured the information about each Dance Form of West Bengal. The “Dhunichi” dance was performed by girls with graceful movements by balancing the “Dhunich pots”. This was a mesmerising and enchanting experience for the spectators.

The Santhal Dance offered immense vibrancy and cheerfulness, bringing the audience to tap their feet and move to the music. Masks play an important role in Bengali dance forms.

Children explained the process of making different types of masks, which are Gambira, Gomera and Durga face masks.

Finally, all the jubilant students performed the group dance to a Bengali song, “Fagunary Mohunary.” This was a high-octane dose of entertainment.

The assembly was concluded with a Vote of Thanks, proposed by S. Siddharth followed by the National Anthem and Shanti Paat.
