

Dear Colleagues,

Praestantia 2022 has been illustrious in fostering additional learning experiences where learners could interact, collaborate, and take ownership of their own learning.

The miscellany of virtual events have demonstrated an assimilation of errands that have nurtured and encouraged the young ingenious minds with confidence and diligence.

It's a pleasure and privilege to have multi skilled and adept scholars of 45 venerated institutions as participants in this magnificent online event.

I would like to express my wholehearted gratitude to all the enthusiastic participants. The efforts put in by the young stalwarts have been worthy of commendable appreciation.

Please find enclosed Praestantia 2022 results and the certificates of appreciation for the participants on the link:
