1.   Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

The wise man who never lied

The wise man, Vikram never lied. The king called Vikram and said, "Is it true that you have never lied?" "Yes," Vikram replied. We will see," the king thought. He called Vikram after some days. He was about to mount his horse when he said to Vikram, "I'm going for hunting. Go and tell my queen I will be back for lunch tomorrow. Tell her to arrange a big feast."   (Para 1)

As Vikram left, the king laughed, "We shall not go for hunting. Vikram will be proved to be a liar." Vikram went to the queen and said, "The king might come back for lunch tomorrow. You may prepare a big feast." "But will he come or not?" the confused queen asked. "Well, I don't know if he mounted his horse to go for hunting or not," Vikram replied.   (Para 2)

The king arrived and said to the queen, "So, Vikram lied to you yesterday?" The queen told him everything. "It's true that wise men never lie and only say what they see with their own eyes," the king said.   (Para 3)

The key

I have a key in my pocket,
I found it just yesterday.
This key must be for an adventure.
What does it go to? Who can say?

Could it be that it opens a treasure chest
Stuffed full of diamonds and gold,
Or may be it opens a journal
With its secrets locked up for years
And if I find it and read it,
I'll be famous and people will cheer.

I guess it could fit in a sports car.
I'd be too young to drive it right now,
But I'd hide it away till I'm older,
When I'd drive it, my friend will say wow.

(a) What would be the treasure chest full of? (1)
(b) What will happen if the key opens a journal? (1)
(c) Find out a pair of rhyming words from the first stanza of the above poem. (1)
